

PRIVACY NOTICE – PUPILS AND PARENTS/CARERS for adoption by all CDAT schools

This policy is informed by the Christian values which are the basis for all of CDAT's work and any actions taken under this policy will reflect this.

'Blessed are those who act justly, who always do what is right'

Psalms 106:3

Approved by	Date	Review Schedule	Date of next review
Audit & Risk committee	December 2025	Annually	December 2026

This privacy notice has been written to inform parents, guardians and pupils of Chester Diocesan Academies Trust (CDAT) about how and why we process your personal data.

Who are we?

Chester Diocesan Academies Trust (CDAT) is a data controller as defined by the UK GDPR. This means that we determine the purposes for which your personal data is processed and the manner of the processing. We will only collect and use your personal data in ways that are compliant with data protection legislation.

CDAT has appointed Veritau Ltd as its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to monitor our compliance with the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018 and advise on data protection issues. If you would like to discuss this privacy notice or our use of your data, please contact Veritau or Chris Williams (chris.williams@cdat.co.uk) CDAT Director of Operations.

Veritau's contact details are:

Schools Data Protection Officer
Veritau
West Offices
Station Rise
York
North Yorkshire
YO1 6GA
schoolsDPO@veritau.co.uk // 01904 554025

Please ensure you include the name of your school in all correspondence.

What personal information do we collect?

The personal data we collect about you includes:

- Personal identifiers and contact details, including name, postal address, email address, phone number, date of birth, and pupil number.
- Educational and assessment attainment, such as early years, phonics and national curriculum assessment results.
- Characteristics such as free school meal eligibility and language spoken.
- Attendance information, including sessions attended, reason and number of absences, and previous schools attended.
- Behavioural information, including exclusions and any relevant alternative provision put in place.
- Safeguarding information, including but not limited to court orders and professional involvement and support.
- Child in Need or Looked After status, including episodes of being looked after or a child in need, adoptions, care leavers and outcome information.
- Healthcare and medical information such as doctor details, allergies, medication and dietary requirements.
- Photographs or video images, including CCTV footage, where schools have CCTV installed.
- Information relating to school trips and extra-curricular activities.
- Records of communications and interactions we have with you, including telephone call recordings, where schools operate this functionality.
- Before and after school club attendance, where schools offer this provision
- Equality monitoring information, such as your ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and gender.
- E-monitoring information about your use of the school's network and IT systems.
- Information relating to future career aspirations and academic career.

Why do we collect your personal information?

We process your information for the purposes outlined below:

- To support pupil learning and development.
- To meet our safeguarding and health and safety obligations.
- To provide necessary health and medical support.
- To monitor and report on pupil attainment progress.
- To provide appropriate pastoral care and support.
- To assess the quality of our educational provision and to develop the curriculum.
- To provide wraparound care before and after school, where this is provided.
- To meet the statutory duties placed upon us regarding DfE data collections.
- To promote the school, including in newsletters, on the school website and social media platforms.

What is our lawful basis for processing your information?

Under the UK GDPR, it is essential to have a lawful basis when processing personal information. We normally rely on the following lawful bases:

- Article 6(1)(a) – consent
- Article 6(1)(c) - legal obligation
- Article 6(1)(e) - public task

If we process your personal data with your consent you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind or are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting Chris Williams (chris.williams@cdat.co.uk), CDAT Director of Operations.

If we share your information in a health emergency, we may rely on the lawful basis of Article 6(1)(d) – vital interests.

Some of the information we collect about you is classed as special category data under the UK GDPR. The additional conditions that allow for processing this data are:

- Article 9(2)(a) – explicit consent
- Article 9(2)(g) - reasons of substantial public interest

The applicable substantial public interest conditions in Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 are:

- Condition 6 - statutory and government purposes
- Condition 8 – equality of opportunity or treatment
- Condition 10 - preventing or detecting unlawful acts
- Condition 16 - support for individuals with a particular disability or medical condition
- Condition 18 - safeguarding of children and vulnerable people

Who do we obtain your information from?

We normally receive this information directly from you, for example via admissions forms, or secure file transfer from a previous school. However, we may also receive some information from the following third parties:

- Department for Education (DfE).
- Local Authority.
- Other agencies working with the child/family, such as Police, Health Services etc.
- Other educational settings previously attended.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We may share your information with the following organisations:

- Schools/education providers that the pupils attend after leaving us.
- Career services and advisors, where relevant.
- Local Authority.
- Department for Education (DfE).
- National Health Service (NHS) bodies.

- Youth support services, where relevant.
- Placement and work experience students, where appropriate.
- Other agencies working with the child/family, where appropriate.
- Relevant examination/awarding bodies.
- School suppliers and IT applications, where necessary.

For more information on information sharing with the DfE please visit the DfE website.

We may also share information with other third parties where there is a lawful basis to do so. For example, we sometimes share information with the police for the purposes of crime detection or prevention. We also regularly share information with appropriate organisations for the purposes of arranging school trips and events.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

We will retain your information in accordance with our Records Management Policy. The retention period for most of the information we process about you is determined by statutory obligations. Any personal information which we are not required by law to retain will only be kept for as long as is reasonably necessary to fulfil its purpose.

We may also retain some information for historical and archiving purposes in accordance with our Records Management Policy.

Artificial intelligence (AI)

We may use some systems and platforms that incorporate an AI function. Where we do this, we ensure that the data is held securely and is not used for training the AI model. AI does not make any automated decisions about individuals, and outputs are always subject to human oversight.

International transfers of data

Although we are based in the UK, some of the digital information we hold may be stored on computer servers located outside the UK. Some of the IT applications we use may also transfer data outside the UK.

Usually your information will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area, which is deemed to have adequate data protection standards by the UK government. In the event that your information is transferred outside the EEA, we will take reasonable steps to ensure your data is protected and appropriate safeguards are in place.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under the UK GDPR, parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation.
- to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete.

- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted.
- to object to your personal data being processed.

Please be aware that usually pupils are considered to have the mental capacity to understand their own data protection rights from the age of 12 years old. The school may therefore consult with a pupil over this age if it receives a request to exercise a data protection right from a parent.

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO using the details provided above.

If we cannot resolve your concerns then you may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, which is the UK's data protection regulator. Their contact details are below:

Phone: 0303 123 1113 or via their live chat. Opening hours are Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm (excluding bank holidays). You can also report, enquire, register and raise complaints with the ICO using their web form on Contact us | ICO.

Changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this privacy notice at any time. We will normally notify you of changes that affect you. However, please check regularly to ensure you have the latest version.